COUNCIL OF MANCHESTER

Must Increase Membership Under Constitution.

TO CHANGE NAME ALSO

Not Less than Fourteen Members of the Lower Branch-Dedication of Central Church To-Day-Elks. Funeral of Mr. Sharp.

Under the Constitution the city of Manchester must provide itself with at least two more members of the lower branch of the Council, and in order to do this a reapportionment will be necessary, which glso is provided for in the Constitution

the Council as required by the Constitution.

SUCCESSOR TO MR. UTZ.

At the next meeting of the Board of Aldermen the Fourth Ward delegation hopes to be able to name a successor to Mr. Utz, who has resigned his position on account of business engagements.
In future all Councilmen and Aldermen are to be elected for a term of four years, armared so that there will always be a
number of hold-overs.

In the cases of Mr. Utz and Mr. Gill,
the new men to be named will simply fill out the unexpired terms of these two kentlemen.

In the meantime it is important that all who contemplate running for the Council in that election should file the ranges with the clerk of the Hustings

BLKS TO MEET.

BLICS TO MEET.

A meeting of Manchester Lodge of Elks will be held to-morrow night, at which much important business will be called up. It is probable that the proposed new home will be placed under discussion, and the trips to Bedford City and Baltimore will be planned.

This lodge is the youngest and one of the livest lodges in the country, each member being an enthusiast.

A Round of Gayety Opens the Summer

A Round of Gayety Opens the Summer Season in King William.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ETNA MILLS, VA., May 16.—The gayelies of the season were begun Friday evening, when the Hon, J. O. Hutchinson and wife threw open the doors of their picturesque bone and charmingly entertained a few friends from 8 to 12 o'clock in honor of their daughter, Miss inc. Miss Hutchinson, attired in pink organdy, was assisted in receiving by her sister, Miss Bessie Overton, in white mull.

streapportlomment will the necessary, which disc is provided for in the Constitution in that portion creating the Corporation Commission.

At present the lower branch of the Council has twelve members, three from each ward. The upper branch has eight, which covers the provisions of the law. Now the lower branch is known as the City Assembly, Under the new laws it must be known as the Common Council. In order to provide for the minimum number of members for the Common Council, fourteen, there must be a reapportlomment of the wards; two men must be elected to represent the city at large, or the representation from each ward may be increased to four, which will make the total sixteen. No change need be made in the Board.

All this comes, of course, with the understanding that the population of Manchester is nearer 12,000 than 16,000, and this doubt is to be dissipated by the taking of a census within a short while. With the change of affairs it is probable that at the June election there will be a number of aspirants for Councilmanale honors. It is possible, however, that a special election will have to be called before the terms of the present Councilmen expire next October, in order that the change of affairs it is probable that the June election there will be a number of aspirants for Councilmen and the arrangement of the Council as required by the Constitution.

TYLER-ELLIOTT

Beautiful Church Ceremony in Roan oke Yesterday. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ROANOKE, VA., May 16.-St. James Methodist Church was the scene at high noon to-day of one of the prettiest marriages of the spring season, when Mr. Jesse W. Tyler won as his bride Miss Lottie Elliott, sister of Mrs. A. Ross Taylor. The church was beautifully decorated for the happy event with laurels, ferns and trailing plants, Hon, H. D. Flood, of Appomattox, was the best man and Mrs. A. W. Moore, of White Hall, Buckingham county, matron of honor. The bridesmaids and groomsmen were as follows: Mr. R. B. Garney, of Richmond, and Miss Fannie Tyler, of Amherst; Mr. H. H. Henkle, of Lynchburg, and Miss Mattle Glover, of Roanoke; Mr. J. Lewis Tyler, of Amherst and Miss Maynie Dunnavant, of Charlotte.

The bride wore a lovely costume of noon to-day of one of the prettiest mar-of Charlotte.

The bride wore a lovely costume of white chiffon over white taffeta and carried bride's roses, showered with sweet peas. The maid of honor wore white Swiss, The bridesmads wore white Swiss and carried white carnations and maiden hair ferns. Both the bride and groom are former residents of Lynchburg,

CORNER-STONE LAID

New Church of the Incarnation to Be Built at Mineral, (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

MINERAL, VA., May 16 .- The corner stone of the "Church of the Incarnation" was laid to-day with Masonic rites by the combined lodges of Louisa and Frederick's Hall. An immense concourse of people assembled to witness the novel and interesting ceremonics. The opening prayer was made by Rev. L. J. Haley, and after the completion of the measurements, etc., of the stone, it was received by the Rev. M. S. Eagle, the pastor of the church, from Worshipful Master Porter, of Day Lodgo, Louisa, Va. Many Richmond people are interested in the work of Mr. Eagle and have subscribed handsomely for this church at Mineral. As showing the improvement which has been wrought in this community, mainly by the Episcopal Church, it is interesting to note that the site of the new "Church of the Incarnation" was formerly occupied by a bar-room. An elegant dinner was served by the members to all who attended the ceremony. stone of the "Church of the Incarnation"

SPLENDID RECORD OF AMERICAN LOCOMOTIVE

Engine No. 271, of the Atlantic Coast, i.e., handled a special train from Jack-onville, Fla., to Savannah, Ga., on March , 1933, in phenomenally quick time. The Atlantic Coast Line baggage car and two private cars, a total of three cars.

The distance is 122 miles and was made in 152 minutes. The average running time for the entire distance, excluding rtops at junction points, was a mile in fitty-five seconds; deducting all stops, the speed was 70.7 miles per hour. At one stretch of the road, between Walthourville, Ga., and Melntosh, Ga., a distance of seven miles, down grade, was made in four minutes. Engineer Thomas Leake handled the throttle and Conductor McCroam was in charge of the train.

The engine is a typical American locemetive, with dimensions as follows: Cylinder, 19x28 inches; driving wheel, seventy-two inches, She is equipped with all modern appliances, including electric headlight, steam bell ringer and high speed brake; is a ten-wheel engine, weighs one hundred and fourteen thousand pounds on drivers; equipped for service, including chapter, that weight is two hundred and thirty-six thousand pounds. Carrying capacity of tender, ten tons of coal and five thousand gallons of water.

This record was made possible by the smooth, straight track of the Atlantic Coast Line, and speaks forcibly of the condition of its roadway and motive power.

QUAY AGAIN ATTACKS MARYE'S HEIGHTS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDRICKSBURG, VA., May 16.—
United States Senator Mathew S. Quay, of Beaver, Pa., accompanied by Captain J. M. Clarke, of New Castle, Pa., arrived here to-day and drove over the battlefields. Senator Quay took part in the charge on the celebrated stone wall at the foot of Marye's Heights during the Civil War and this is his first visit here since. Notwithstanding the changes and improvements, he easily recognized the had over which his regiment passed and met with such disastrous losses. Senator Quay is a warm advocate of the establishment by Congress of the Battlefields Park here and in Spotsylvania county. He left in the afternoon for Washington.

Runaway Horse.

There was a runaway in the Capitol Square yesterday afternoon, which excited the wildest interest and which made the nurses and children scatter from one place to another. Dr. Edward McGuire was having a ride with his friend, Dr. Hugh M. Taylor, in the latter's buggy and had turned over his fine black saidle horse to his butler. The negto was not an up-to-date rider and in sharply turning a corner near New Ford's, the horse fell and threw the rider high into the air.

The horse jumped up and dashed into the Capitol Square and made a wild run, covering most of the ground therein. He was finally caught unhurt, after having thoroughly frightened every nurse and child in the Square.

Election Goes Over.

Election Goes Over.

Speaker John F. Ryan yesterday issued a writ of election to fill the vacancy in the House of Delegates occasioned by the resignation of Hon. R. G. Southall, former member from the counties of Amelia and Nottoway.

The date fixed is regular election day in November and it is understood that the only condidate is Mayor Henry E. Lee, of Crewe.

A CARD.

To My Friends and the Public:
It has no doubt come to your attention that I have bought the Richmond Printing Company, which is none other than the old Dispatch job plant, with much up to date material added.

I wish to say that I am anxious to be remembered with anything in the printing line. I have retained a man for the supervision of the business who spent sixteen years of his life with the good old Richmond Dispatch, and is, therefore, in a position to please you.

All work given to this concren shall be done with promptness and neatness and as cheap as is consistent with good business methods.

ness methods.

A trial will convince you of the high class of work being done by this plant. Thanking each and every one for favors tossed in my direction, I remain,
Yours cordially,
L. E. BRIGGS.

VIRGINIA HORSES SELL WELL

The Smallpox Scare at Bealton Has Passed-Summer Visitors.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WARRENTON, VA., May 16.-Warrenon gentlemen are fast disposing of some of their finest stock in the shape of or their finest stock in the shaps of horseflesh. Several days ago Mr. Albert Fletcher, Jr., sold his gray gelding, by "His Grace," to Mr. Colt for the sum of four hundred dollars. The animal was an especially fine one, having given encouraging proof of an excellent future career.

Founders' Day at Bethel Military Academy was quite an event in the annals of the school's history. The exhibition given by the cadet cavalry troop was one of the most exciting and exhilarating features of the day's programme. In the test of horsemanship, which followed the dispersing of the squad, Lieutenants Tolloes and Luske, of the Second United States cavalry, acted as judges. These gentlemen were guests of Major Randlett, the commandant of the school. Mr. Varner won the prize—a pair or spurs—and a presentation speech was delivered by Mr. William Skinker, of the old "Black Horse." Mr. F. A. B. Postman has loaned his large field for the ext contest, to be held on Memorial Day. The field athletics also formed a very creditable part of the day's work. Mr. T. H. Ramey secured the championship; Varner and Smith scored second. Numerous Warrenton people were in attendance. Founders' Day at Bethel Military Acad-ship; Varner and Smith scored second. Numerous Warrenton people were in attendance.

There is little, if any, talk of the smallpox situation at Bethel now. The scare is well over, and such cases as there were have mostly been eliminated.

Warrenton is daily receiving its full quota of summer visitors. Miss Bessie Wilson, of Washington, is visiting Miss Mattle Jennings. Mr. Fred, Vincent, of Washington, is a guest at the Warren Green. Mr. Carter Scott paid his relatives here a brief visit last week. Mr. Thomas Owens is at Mrs. Britton's. Mr. and Mrs. Turner Day have returned to New York. Miss Nanule Payne is home again after an extended trip to Atlanta. Misses Bello and Isabelle Stone are the guests of Miss Lily Woodard at Virginia Beach. Miss May Fair has returned from Washington. Mr. William Jennings is visiting his parents on Culppeper Street. Miss Lucy L. Stone left Monday for a siort stay with Miss Booker, of Hampton, Va.

Miss Lizzle Conrad, of Danville; Miss Clara Tinsley of Gloucester, and Miss Mercer French, of Newport News, are visiting Miss Sara Harvie, No. 112 South Third Street.

Tuliah.

There is another proverb contest in to-day's want pages. The proverb is composed of twenty-two letters, which will be found scattered throughout the little want ads. See want pages, find the capital letters and form the proverb. What is it? Seven prizes will be awarded the winners. Every reader has an equationance to win a prize. Tullah.
